The Cary Arms wins Silver, in best Bed & Breakfast, Guest Accommodation and Inn of the Year

1st October 2010 - Lana de Savary, owner of The Cary Arms, Babbacombe, is proud to announce its latest achievement, a Silver award in the best 'Bed & Breakfast, Guest Accommodation and Inn of the Year' in the Visit Devon Tourism Awards 2010.

Delighted with the award, Lana de Savary said; 'We are thrilled with the accolade. Jen Podmore (general manager) and the team have worked extremely hard over the last year and Visit Devon's recognition proves their continued dedication and commitment has paid dividends. We continue to receive wonderful feedback about the staff, food and overall hospitality. Well done them!'

Adding to its collection of achievements, 2010 has been a successful year for The Cary Arms. Earlier this year, head chef, Ben Kingdon, was awarded 'Pub Chef of the Year' in the Great British Pub Food Award 2010, and just last week, the Inn was included in the 2011 Michelin 'Eating Out in Pubs' Guide – one of only 20 pubs in Devon.
