REDS FROM THE DE SAVARY CELLAR

- 47 NUITS ST GEORGE BOTTLE £120.00
DOMAINE JEROME CHEZEAUX
COTES DE NUITS, BURGUNDY, FRANCE
The Chezeaux family owns almost four hectares of vineyards within the village appellation of Nuits Saint Georges. The vineyards are found within a number of lieu-dits but the ultimate cuvée that is bottled is principally from the Charbonniere site supplemented by Les Chaliots and Aux Saint Julien. The vines are very old, some being planted over eighty years ago (written as of early 2012). The soil is a mix of silts of clay, reddish-brown in color, overlain with limestone pebbles. Exquisite aromas and flavours of blackcurrant, black cherry, cocoa and clove. Firmly structured and robust on the palate with a stylish and elegant finish.
- 48 BEAUNE IER CRU 'LES CENTS VIGNES' BOTTLE £110.00
DOMAINE JESSIAUME
COTES DE BEAUNE, BURGUNDY, FRANCE
The domaine is located in the village of Santenay and was founded in 1850. Five generations of the Jessiaume family have managed the Domaine, which is presently owned by former Rangers F.C. chairman Sir David Murray (whose vinous passion began in the 1980s) and his son Keith Murray. The winemaking is in the hands of siblings Marc and Pascal Jessiaume, as well as Marc's son Jean-Baptiste, who won best young winemaker at last year's Hospice de Beaune auction. Striking deep scarlet colour leads on to aromas of black and red fruits. On the palate, its solid, mouth-filling structure makes it a wine that is generous, straightforward, and with the power to charm.
- 49 CHATEAU BATAILLEY 5 EME CRU CLASSE, 2011 BOTTLE £130.00
PAUILLAC, BORDEAUX, FRANCE
Château Batailley is consistently one of the most outstanding wines from Pauillac. The secret of the wine's success is the outstandingly ripe Cabernet Sauvignon, which makes up a high proportion of the blend, the balance being Merlot, Cabernet Franc and Petit Verdot. This Chateau is a reliable source of "proper claret" and in 2011 the Cabernet Sauvignon gives it a classic Pauillac character. This is very impressive. Lots of cassis fruit and a plump mid-palate with very well integrated tannins. A fine balance of black fruit, spicy oak, graphite and cigar box.
- 50 CHATEAU D'ISSAN 2011 BOTTLE £210.00
MARGAUX, BORDEAUX, FRANCE
Emmanuel Cruse continues to take this property to new heights. Rigorous selection of only the best grapes led to just 57% of the crop being used in the first wine, which is composed of 69% Cabernet Sauvignon and 31% Merlot. The nose shows excellent intensity with both red and black fruits to the fore; on the palate there is a real density of fruit with impressive length on the finish. Tannins are plentiful but are fine-grained so do not appear austere or aggressive. One of the real finds in the Margaux appellation.

- 51 ST JOSEPH "LES PIERRES SECHES" BOTTLE £80.00
YVES CUILLERON 2015
RHONE, FRANCE
In recent years as part of the revival of interest in Rhone Valley wines, a group of mostly young growers, all working with consultant oenologist Jean Luc Colombo, has coalesced, called Rhone Vignobles. Yves Cuilleron is one such grower. Since taking over from his uncle, Yves Cuilleron has transformed the estate into one of the appellation's finest. Ruby red in colour with an elegant perfumed fruity nose of raspberry, blueberry, violet and pepper. Fruity, juicy and on the lean side, but firm on the finish.
- 52 AMARONE DELLA VALPOLICELLA FATORRI, 2014 BOTTLE £90.00
BASTIA, VERONA, ITALY
Hand picked grapes during the last two weeks of September and laid to dry in small boxes in "fruttaio". The grapes are allowed to dry gently in well-ventilated rooms for around 4-5 months, concentrating their flavours, sweetness and colour. In winter, the grapes are crushed and the wine matures in wood for 30-36 months before bottling. Produced in tiny quantities this is hedonistic and complex with a nose of cherry liqueur and cinnamon with flavours of green peppercorn, chocolate and dried plum.
- 53 ALANDES PARADOUX BLEND BOTTLE £65.00

- 56 PULIGNY MONTRACHET IER CRU BOTTLE £85.00
"LES CHALAMEAUX" 2009
BURGUNDY, FRANCE
A "chalumau" is a medieval wind instrument. It can be seen on tapestries at the Hospices de Beaune. It is true that this part of the slope is rather windy and that this vineyard is at the top of the slope on an austere and rocky soil. A site famed for its low yields, the premier cru vineyard of Les Chalumeaux produces a wine with great intensity. A backbone of citrus fruit is accompanied by aromas of apricot, pear, subtle toast notes and hints of flint. Elegantly shaped on the palate, with great length.
- 57 CLOUDY BAY SAUVIGNON, 2018 BOTTLE £85.00

HAUTVILLERS CHAMPAGNE FRANCE
Dom Pérignon (1638–1715) was a monk and cellar master at the Benedictine abbey in Hautvillers. He pioneered a number of winemaking techniques around 1670—being the first to blend grapes in such a way as to improve the quality of wines, balance one element with another in order to make a better whole, and deal with a number of their imperfections; perfecting the art of producing clear white wines from black grapes by clever manipulation of the presses; Each vintage is a perfectly balanced blend of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay, aged for a minimum of seven years. 2009 was an excellent vintage that, while still youthful, is showing great elegance. Exemplary in style, depth and quality, this is simply heavenly

- 58 NYETIMBER BLANC DE BLANC BOTTLE £115.00
HAMPSHIRE AND SUSSEX, ENGLAND
Lovely pale gold in colour with a fine bead. This Blanc de Blancs shows our classic signature of delicate floral and citrus aromas followed by subtle vanilla and toast flavours, but now with a pure crystalline core thanks to the inclusion of Chardonnay from our Hampshire vineyards. Using only estate-grown grapes from their own vineyards ensures that only the finest fruit is used and all fruit is handpicked at harvest.
